FUNNY BUSINESS:

Why did the man bring a fishing pole to his date?
Because he heard the woman was a real catch!

FROM THE DESK OF THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

With the unusually cold temperatures we are experiencing in South Louisiana, there has been no interruption in the delivery of TCOA services. Non-Emergency Medical Transportation (including to-and-from dialysis clinics) and meal deliveries run as scheduled, and Senior Centers remain open. Also, 1400 Shelf-stable meals were delivered to homebound seniors before the freezing temperatures reached our Parish. Hats' off to TCOA's dedicated Drivers and staff members who continue to brave the cold weather with a smile--- you all are AWESOME!

HAVE A SAFE AND HAPPY MARDI-GRAS!

SERVICE SPOTLIGHT: IN-HOME RESPITE

Caring for elderly loved ones is a rewarding but demanding role, and even dedicated caregivers need time to rest and recharge. Respite Care services provide temporary care in the home of the caregiver or care receiver, affording the caregiver a brief period of relief or rest and time away to do other activities.

EMPLOYEE SPOTLIGHT: JOHN GATLIN

John Gatlin enjoys many aspects of his job, but what matters most to him is meeting and helping people every day. He values the fact that no two days are ever the same. Growing up as an Air Force brat, John moved frequently while his father served as an Air Force officer for over 20 years, shaping his adaptability and outlook. Outside of work, he's a fan of classic muscle cars—especially the 1970 Mustang Boss 496 Fastback and the 1969 Chevy Camaro—and enjoys spending his free time fishing.

CLIENT SPOTLIGHT: BEULAH BENOIT

Beulah Benoit, also known as the "Candy Lady," is always ready with a big bag of candy to share and a smile for everyone she meets. From Pointe-aux-Chenes, Beulah is the proud mother of three daughters and grandmother to seven grandchildren. She loves meeting new people, socializing, and bringing a little sweetness and joy wherever she goes.
