THE ROUGAROU

The Rougarou is a Cajun legend which is derived from the French term Loup-Garou. It is said Louisiana's Werewolf hunts down Catholics who don't follow the rules of Lent, which is similar to the telling of the old French stories. Supposedly, the Rougarou is under a 101-day curse and prowls through the swamp looking for a person to transfer the curse to. It is said you can protect yourself by laying down 13 small objects by your door or carrying a piece of silver. Although, the rougarou started as just a legend, maybe one day we will find it hanging out with the Honey Island Swamp Monster.
